Comic 1

Create a comic in which one character is addressed in the "tú" form and the other character in the "usted" form. Choose characters that show the difference between tú and usted. For example: a student talking to the principal, a person talking to the president

Comic 2

Create a comic in which both characters address each other in the "tú" form.

In both comics, be sure to:

- Include greetings
- Characters ask how each other feels
- Characters tell how he/she feels
- Include farewells

Check your comics for correct spelling, punctuation, and accent marks before you print it.

Comics should be in color.

If you do not have internet access or if you prefer it you may draw your comic strips.

Due date: Wednesday, September 30, 2015

Appearance	Mechanics (Spelling, accent marks, punctuation)	Vocabulary	Content	Grammar
Looks great! Creative Colored in neatly Paper is not torn/wrinkled	No mistakes	-Rich use of vocab -Variety of words & phrases	Has all required elements	Correctly uses tú & usted and the difference is made clear with the characters chosen
Looks pretty good! Colored in neatly Paper is not torn/wrinkled	Few mistakes	-Adequate and accurate use of vocab -Some variety of words & phrases	Missing 1 required element	Correctly uses tú and usted, but the difference is NOT made clear with the characters chosen
Could look better! Slightly messy and/or not in color	Occasional mistakes	-Very little variety of vocabulary -Repeats words & phrases frequently	Missing 2 required elements	Correctly uses tú and usted in one comic strip
Messy/Not in color	Frequent mistakes	- Inadequate and inaccurate use of vocab -Words in English -Repetitive	Missing 3 or more required elements	Does not correctly use tú and usted in either comic strip
